

RL Orchestra Technical rider

*Please pay close attention to this rider - it describes specific technical requirements needed for the band to deliver a high quality performance. If you have trouble arranging certain conditions, please contact band representative immediately.

*If the club/venue is relatively small and cozy, it could be possible for us to bring our own equipment (meaning - amplifiers for guitars). If that's the case, please contact band representative.

Instruments: 2 Electro-acoustic guitars, Bass, Percussion set (cajon, udu drum + 2 cymbals), cello

Set-up:

- Band needs 60 minutes of set-up time and sound check, assuming that all the requested gear is available, hooked up and working.
- A house technician has to be available during set-up and sound check, as well as during performance. She or he has to be knowledgeable about the design, set-up and wiring of the house systems
- The stage should be clean of all but the necessary equipment during set-up.

PA system_:

- First class active Stereo PA system (2 tops, capable of handling low frequencies with ease.

No subs needed, if it's not a big stage),

- At least 16 channel professional mixing board with built in effects
- A sound engineer

Microphones :

- Shure Beta 58a - Vocal
- DPA 4099-C clip-on mic, or other good clip-on microphone - Cello
- Percussion mics - Shure SM57 or AKG D110 (cajon), Shure SM57 (Udu), Shure SM81 (Overhead)

All the mics should be on stands.

Amps/Direct boxes :

- Marshall AS 50D x2 or Marshall AS 100D x2 (if not possible - 2 DI) + 3 guitar stands
- Gallien Krueger, EBS or Ampeg 4x10 Cabinet with head + guitar stand

Monitor system:

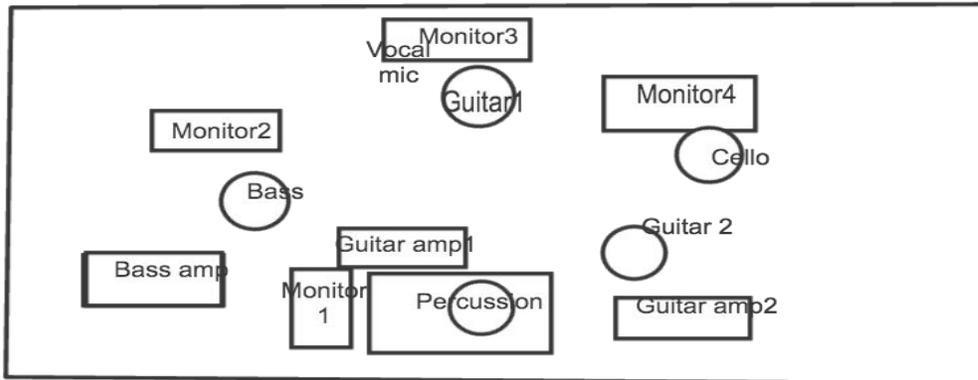

- Big stage - 4 monitors (4 independent lines)
- Small stage - 2 monitors (2 independent lines)

Additional requirements :

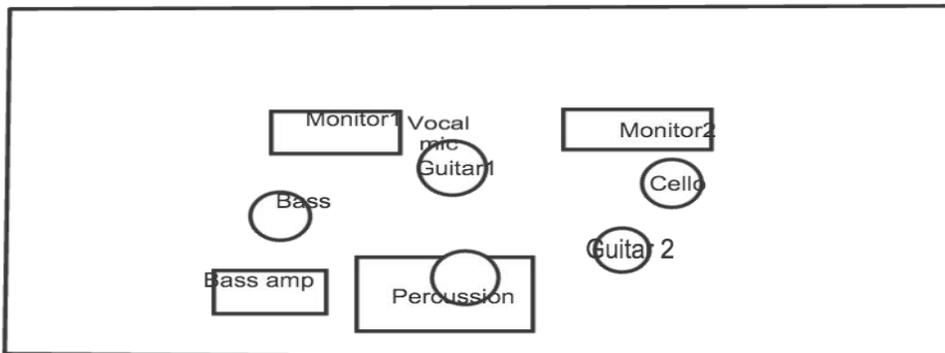

- Regular sized chair without armrests x 5 (small stage) or x 2 (big stage)

Stage plot :

1. Big stage

2. Small stage

Food, hospitality and performance requirements

1. The employer agrees to provide dinner and supper for the whole band on the day of the performance
2. Coffee, Tea, Mineral water (still), napkins and vegetarian snacks should be available to the band from the beginning of set-up.
3. During performance, we require 0,5l mineral water (still) bottles on the stage for each band member
